L-W Beats Reavis: Now Faces Vikings

The Lincoln-Way High School basketball team was in charge all the way in the game against Reavis last Friday night and when a team owns the ball that's the team that has the biggest score when the final gun ends play.

In the case of the Lincoln-Way - Reavis tilt the Lincolns won handily, 70 to 51. They controlled the boards, offensively and defensively so by the time the last quarter rolled around Coach Tom Lewis began emptying the bench.

The Knights were hitting well from the floor but weren't doing so well with their free throws. The winners had 22 chances from the charity line but only capitalized on 12 of them.

The Rams of Reavis were cold on their floor shots, hitting 20 out of 54 and connected on 11 out of 19 free throws.

The Knights led all the way, 11 to 5 in the first quarter, 33 to 15 at the half, and 55 to 36 at the end of the third frame.

Norman Diaz, of Reavis, was high point man for the evening with 20 tallies. Rich Loucks, of Lincoln-Way had 17, Greg Palka and Ed Istel, 11 each, and Harold Webb, 10. Other scorers for the Knights were Al Smith and Craig Otto, 6 each, Minger, 4, Ryan, 3 and Jensen, 2.

No one but Diaz had double figures for Reavis. Dehnicke and Poole had 9 each, Calhoun, 6, Bawalski, Center and Hague, 2 each, and Wenk, 1.

Palka led in the rebounds with 12 recoveries; Terry snagged seven and Smith and Istel accounted for five each for Lincoln-Way.

This Friday night the Knights would like to get a little revenge. They invade Homewood-Flossmoor and the first meeting between the two teams this season resulted in a 52-49 win for the Vikings, who are having things all their own way in conference play.

March 1 Referendum Date For L-W High Addition

Lincoln-Way High School board is considering plans for expanding present plant facilities.

The board has spent much time in considering its expansion plans, along with the development of a master plan for the future.

At its regular meeting last Thursday night it came to a decision. The plan agreed upon calls for a major addition to the school on the present 70-acre campus, with an estimated cost of $1,500,000.

The board then set March 1 as a date for a referendum at which the voters of the district will be asked to approve a bond issue of this amount. An additional request will also be presented at the same time for a 21-cent increase in the Educational Fund tax rate. The present rate is $1.07 per $100 equalized assessed valuation. This rate has served the district since May, 1961, despite rapid enrollment increases from 854 to 1,346 during this same period.

The plans call for a new, self-contained school designed for ninth grade students to be built immediately north of the present building.

The new structure will house 600 students and provide regular required academic subjects. Due to the present building location, most of the existing vocational shops are adequate for additional enrollment.

In the proposed new building there would be 18 classrooms for science, mathematics, English, social studies, art, health and safety. In addition there would be a library, cafeteria, kitchen, and two physical education areas for the required physical education courses.

Board members and Supt. A. Hunter Chapman were questioned as to why it was decided to expand on the present site than to make use of the 55 acre site the district owns north of Frankfort just off U.S. 45.

Board President Earl Moss and Dr. Lowell M. Webb, vice president explained that the board "has no other choice, from purely a financial problem."

Dr. Webb mentioned the saving in personnel, transportation, sewage and water, along with greater building flexibility.

The architectural firm of Childs and Smith have estimated that a new building on the second site would cost approximately $500,000 more than the one presently being planned.

Supt. Chapman discussed the rapid student growth along with inflationary problems, including the increase in teachers' salaries, as the basis for the request to increase the educational tax rate from $1.07 to $1.28. He pointed out that Lincoln-Way has not asked for a tax increase since May, 1961. The increase in teachers' salaries, plus the rapid student growth, leaves the board with no alternative, it was pointed out. Salary increases alone next year for all personnel, with six additional teachers, will amount to approximately $100,000, Chapman said.

According to the plan the bond issue would be payable over 20 years, and for the first three years would add from 10 to 14 cents to the bond tax rate, after which a gradual decrease would result. The district's first bond issue of $1,200,000 for the initial building will be entirely paid off in November, 1971, Chapman said.

If the proposition is successful, construction could not start until early fall, with completion set for September, 1971.

Supt. Chapman pointed out that the present building will be filled next year to capacity, with emergency schedules for the 1970-71 school year. It is expected there will be 2,000 students in Lincoln-Way by the time the proposed building is completed. As of this time the enrollment this year is 1,340.

Lincoln-Way S and L Reports Steady Gain

A continuous growth of over a million dollars a year since its opening has been the success story of Lincoln-Way Savings. This marks an increase of over 15 percent reported a year ago, attesting to the growth in the Lincoln-Way area and the acceptance of this financial institution by the people in the New Lenox, Manhattan, Frankfort, Mokena, and Joliet area.

Since its beginning the directors of the association have strived to meet the needs of the people who are seeking home mortgage loans, as well as paying the highest savings rates allowed by law, a spokesman said. Coupled within this program is the continued objective of the directors to build a strong reserve position and added protection to the saver as well as the borrower of the association. Lincoln-Way's reserve position as strong as any financial institution when compared to its relation of assets to reserves, the spokesman declared.

A new director has been added to the association since its last financial report. William "Bill" Barr has joined the directorate which includes Lloyd Berlin, president and chairman of the board, C.L. Klasing Jr., vice president, John Oster, secretary-treasurer, Don Nepote, executive vice president; Attorney Stuart Kroesch, Earl Moss, G. Merrill Cooper, Dr. Claude Otto, and Donald Wennlund.

All accounts at Lincoln-Way Savings are insured up to $15,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. The association is a member of the F.H.L.B. and the Illinois Savings and Loan League.

Name Orland Park Easter Seal Head

Fred Huizinga, who is with Wiles Drug Store, 143rd & West Av., Orland Park, has been named community chairman for the 1969 Easter Seal Parade at Orland Park.

This year's Easter Seal campaign will take place from March 1 to April 6, and the Easter Seal Parade Days will be March 18-22.

The 1969 goal of the Easter Seal Society is $491,000 based on the extensive need for Easter Seal services in the Chicago area. The Society serves crippled persons regardless of the cause of crippling and does not duplicate the services of any other agency.

Persons are treated whose disabilities are caused by polio, arthritis, cardiac disease, cerebral palsy, hemiplegia, muscular dystrophy, amputation, and many other orthopedic conditions.

At the two Easter Seal treatment centers, the West Side Center and the Ridge Center, registered therapists give physical, occupational and speech therapies to crippled children. Thru the Easter Seal Homebound Industrial Program, handicapped adults receive gainful employment as well as therapeutic benefit.

Orthopedic equipment, owned by the Society, is available through the Equipment Loan Pool to disabled children and adults.

Proceeds of the Easter Seal Campaign comprise the bulk of the local Society's revenue. Ninety per cent of the funds raised here remain in Chicago for the support of local services.

Arts, Industrial And Fine, Winning Public

Innovations and new ideas are the words for art and industrial arts departments at Sandburg-Stagg (District 230) High Schools this year.

Bringing the community and student-artists closer together is the goal of two recent art department events. Saturday, Feb. 1, from 6 till 11 a.m., Stagg High's art department is sponsoring a combination display of student art and a pancake breakfast at the school, 111th and Roberts Road, Palos Park.

Sandburg's art department sponsored the appearance of Mrs. Hilda Rubin, who demonstrated collage techniques to an audience of students and PTA members, January 16. Mrs. Rubin, a noted Chicago artist, was well received in the second guest artist demonstration of the year at Sandburg. Earlier, Win Jones of Barrington and Northern Illinois University had displayed his water color techniques in a lecture sponsored by the Sandburg art department, the school's PTA, and the Palos Women's Club.

Stagg's newly constructed auto shop will be fully operative by second semester, Don Brauer, district supervisor of industrial arts said. The innovation there is that students from both schools use the one auto shop, saving expensive duplication of facilities. About eighteen Sandburg students take a school bus to Stagg each day and learn basic auto repair from teacher Gerald Pavlovic.

Another industrial arts innovation is the restructuring of introductory courses at Sandburg so that students spend more time learning basic skills than before, Brauer said.

New industrial arts teachers this year are Roger Tracy, Richard Smith, and Darryl Hyink, all at Stagg. Tracy teaches metal classes and is from Joliet. Smith is a drafting teacher from Indiana State University who previously taught in Muessel High of South Bend, Portage High of Ft. Wayne, and in Westview, Indiana. Hyink teaches electricity and woods courses at Stagg and is a graduate of Carl Sandburg High School. He graduated from Western Illinois University and taught at Bremen and Mundelein High Schools, previously.

An art teacher new to Stagg High this year is James Horejs, who is from Lyons. He graduated from Chicago State and is now attending Illinois Institute of Technology, taking advanced courses. He previously taught at Kennedy High in Chicago.

2 Sandburg Girls Win Science Honors

Two Sandburg High School senior girls are among the 300 selected as the foremost young scientific minds in the nation in the 28th annual Westinghouse Science Talent Search.

The Sandburg students chosen are Martha Lynn Gay, 17, Palos Park, and Arvydas Marcelius Valenta, 16, also of Palos Park.

The purpose of the search is to select students with research ability in science.

The 81 girls and 219 boys, representing the most talented of 2,361 qualifying entrants, will be recommended for scholarships to colleges and universities. From this group 40 winners were to have been announced yesterday. They will have an all-expense-paid trip to Washington where they will compete for Westinghouse scholarships and awards totaling $67,500 during the five-day Science Talent Institute beginning Feb. 26 and running thru March 3.

The report from Miss Gay was on the "Breakdown of Cholesterol Into Bile Salts as Related to Saturated and Unsaturated Fats in the Diet of Rats."

The report by Miss Valenta dealt with "Pseudorabies Effect in Swine and Mice."

Last year, the number of Science Talent Search four-year scholarships was doubled from five to ten, and the overall scholarship fund was increased from $34,250 to $67,500. The top scholarship was increased to $10,000 from its former $7,500. Other scholarships to be awarded are: two for second place of $8,000 each; three of $6,000 each; and four of $4,000 each. The thirty finalists who do not win scholarships will receive single-payment awards of $250.

The Sandburg students are the only winners in the area.

Carolyn Matczak became the proud mother of a baby boy last week. Carolyn is staying with her sister Mrs. Marilyn Quinlin, Pleasant Ave. while her husband is stationed in the service in Turkey.

There have been an abundance of complaints this week about dogs running loose. Please help to keep your dog a good neighbor. Everyone understands that dogs do get loose occasionally but it becomes a nuisance when it is the same dogs day after day. When these dogs are loose they do damage to property and also jump on the smaller children that are out playing. The situation is out of control and has been for some time now. Please do your part in taking care of your pet.

My gratitude to all the wonderful people who helped to look for Roy Gunn when we thought he was lost. Fortunately it was just an oversight on the part of his mother since he had gone away for the day with his father. It is really a wonderful feeling to know that so much help is available when an emergency such as this one does arise. There were many men and children outside searching house to house and through the fields, while the women did their share in calling different homes that he may have been playing in.

August Bridal Month

August surpassed June by 33 weddings as the marrying month in 1968, according to County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard (R). She stated her office issued 269 wedding licenses in August and only 236 in June.

Mrs. Woodard added, "During the past seven years June and August have been vying with each other as the searching last week for Roy reported on the dangers of some of the abandoned homes in this vicinity. In one of these homes there was a freezer still very accessible to children. Also while walking thru one of them Ross Horton stepped on a very old nail. Warn your children to stay away from such buildings and if any are seen in the area of one, please send them on their way home.

If anyone has any news please contact Mrs. Sharon Horton at 532-8665.

We were all very sorry to see that the street sign on Pleasant Ave. has been knocked down. There was a lot of group work done to acquire these signs and it is a shame for someone to ruin them thru careless neglect. Please do not forget to call Mrs. Sharon Horton and make reservations for the annual Valentine supper to be held at the Arch Inn. This is a Tinley Gardens Homeowners event.

Crossing Accident Is Fatal

Fred Jepson, 42, of 760 196th St., Holbrook, north of Chicago Heights, was killed Wednesday morning, Jan. 22, when his automobile collided with a Michigan Central freight train on the Cook County side of Harlem Av., about a mile south of U.S. 30.

Jepson, a house painter, was traveling north on Harlem, according to Dist. 5 State Police, and struck the side of the east bound train. Troopers who investigated said it was foggy at the time and he probably didn't see the train until too late. The accident occurred about 12 minutes after 10 in the forenoon.

Letters To The Editor

For Roy Newton

(Editor's Note: Mokena village officials asked that a letter written by Mayor Eric Book to former police chief, Roy Newton, be carried in the Letters to the Editor column and we are glad to do so).

Dec. 27, 1968

Mr. Roy Newton
Mokena, Illinois
Dear Roy:

The Board of Trustees and myself want to thank you most sincerely for the many years you have served Mokena. Your years on the police force has made Mokena a better village to live in, one with a reputation of being quiet and under control. There hasn't been any fear of walking the streets at night or of burglary. This is not a usual condition but an exceptional one. The people of Mokena appreciate this. We hope we can keep the people of Mokena feeling this way for a long time.

You have struggled with an improperly equipped police department, but with your fortitude it has greatly improved over these years. From the days of buying second-hand cars and donated sirens it has come a long way. This, again, is something the board and myself really appreciate.

Your conscientious feeling towards the department as shown by your many hours of patrolling, more than expected, indicated your concern in providing good police protection. This is a trait not

Orland School Plans Cost Cuts

At the regular business meeting of the Orland board of education the school administration recommended a number of economy measures which were approved by the Board in order to decrease spending in the building maintenance fund. Several of the measures have been usual practice, but it was recommended that more stringent enforcement of such good housekeeping practices be carried out.

They were:

Temperature to be lower-found in many people anymore. Most people lately seem to think that if they do the bare minimum this is good enough. We hope this sets an example for the new men.

There have been some things we have disagreed upon, but then not all people do things the same way. When a person has a certain responsibility it is up to him to carry these out and the way he does it is the way he knows best.

Again, Roy, thanks for your years with the Mokena Police Force and may your new ventures be prosperous and happy.

Harriet, we want to thank you also for the time and inconvenience you have endured over these years.

ed in all rooms and special facilities to nighttime settings from 2:00 p.m. to 7:30 a.m., normal heat to be provided for rentals, and exceptions to be made at discretion of the building principals when severe weather conditions prevail.

Building principals to carefully monitor all staff members regarding lights off at the end of the day, and in wings of buildings not being cleaned at night.

All efforts be made to initiate pupil clean-up details inside and outside of buildings during and at the conclusion of the school day.

School custodians whose salaries are paid from this fund will be affected in the following manner: Saturday overtime will be eliminated. It was explained that this may create a problem by necessitating completion of all maintenance jobs during the week.

Overtime for rentals to be allowed as the district's Rental Policy, revised this fall, increased rates to compensate for rental overtime.

Also included in the recommendation was the intent to defer employment of additional custodial help and to control and sustain hours of part-time personnel for the remainder of the 1968-69 school year.

Supt. Norbert Jerling

stated that the lack of additional revenue in the building maintenance fund requires these measures. They will not solve the district's financial problems but will decrease to some degree maintenance costs until a rate increase is passed, he said. This subject will be on the February agenda of the Orland school board.

Registered For Voting? Can Do Now

Clara Hartley Woodard, county clerk of Will County, list dates when unregistered voters can register before the elections this spring.

There will be no registering from Jan. 27 until two days after the city primaries, which are scheduled Feb. 25. Registration will then be open again Feb. 27 for five days -- until March 3. Then registration will be closed again until two days after the city and village elections, April 15.

The town elections are to be held April 1.

Though 1968 will go down in history as the "Year of the First Manned Lunar Orbit" and perhaps "The Year of Heart Transplants," other major breakthroughs should mark it as the greatest year of scientific fulfillment that mankind has ever known.

Basic clinical scientific accomplishments, for which RAND of California predicted target dates far in the future, accelerated to completion within the past year.

According to the December 30 Journal of the American Medical Association, a 1964 RAND study predicted that fertility control by simple oral contraceptives would not be effective until the early 1970's.

However, statistics for 1968 show a birth rate decline in the U.S., India and Japan.

Other RAND predictions, compared with actual developments:

--There could be "no foreseeable possibility of implantable organs or transplants (heart) before 1972." The past year has seen 96 such transplants, with 48 still living.

--There could be "no direct interaction between the human brain and computerized organs until sometime between 1980-2020, possibly never." But the "Boston Arm," an artificial arm that operates at the individual's own will, became a reality in 1968.

--The implantation and proper functioning of artificial organs would be an impossibility before the year 2000. Yet 1968 saw miniature, nuclear-powered steam engines implanted in experimental animals provide energy for their artificial hearts.

The successful harvesting of the first experimental breeding beds or "sea farms" this past year gives promise of offsetting RAND's dire prediction that billions will starve by the year 2000.

Giant strides in juggling human genes to control hereditary defects -- foreseen by RAND as "possibly as early as 1990" -- have already caused considerable moral and ethical concern.

And the creation of primitive forms of life -- which RAND said "cannot be expected until 1978 at the earliest" -- is being accomplished at Stanford and elsewhere with self-duplicating viruses.

SEX PREDICTIONS --

At the University of Chicago, Dr. Anthony P. Amarose has been able to predict the sex of unborn babies with 100 per cent accuracy by removing a tiny amount of fluid from the sac surrounding the fetus.

HEPATITIS CLUE--

Doctors at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, have found that the so-called Australian antigen (Au) is linked with hepatitis outbreaks, and suggest that the presence of AU in the patient's blood should "constitute a strong probability of hepatitis."

SHORTER X-RAY--

Emory University investigators have developed a new electronic radiography technique which can reduce the patient's exposure by 50 per cent or more.

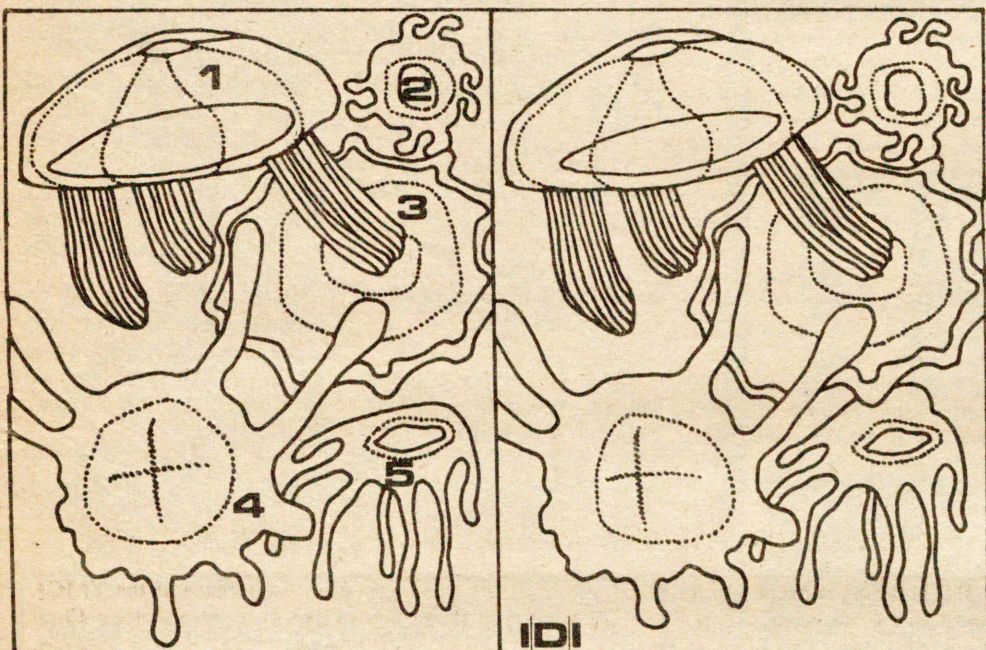

TOOTHLESS BEAST

The giant anteater sometimes grows more than six feet long and weighs 75 pounds. Its nozzle-shaped snout is more than a foot long, but its mouth is no wider than the head of a thumbtack. It has no teeth, using its long, whip-like tongue to catch ants.

Treasure House 50 Miles Away

Copyright 1969 World Book
Science Service

By traveling a mere 50 miles southwest from the center of Chicago, you can go back 280,000,000 years!

In the rich coal beds 50 to 100 feet below the flat farmland of this area are the fossil remains of creatures who lived there a quarter of a billion years ago.

The strip mines in the region have exposed this treasure and the fossils are right there for the picking.

Scientists believe that most coal is made up of the remains of plants. Giant ferns and other plants once flourished in the vast swamps that covered the land.

With the shifting of oceans and the buildup of mud-floored swamps, the proper chemical changes that make coal came about.

Animals of many kinds lived in and around the huge seas and swamplands.

Because of the mud base, dead animals were often encased before they had time to decay.

Teeth and bones left perfect molds. Even soft tissues left clear impressions.

Many examples of perfectly-formed fossils have been found. Worms, snails, shrimps, clams, chitons, sharks, and many others are clearly identifiable.

One of the most exciting finds has been fossils of jellyfish. It is really unusual to find so many well-formed jellyfish fossils in one place.

Fossil hunting is a great hobby. Many people enjoy searching for and finding these clues to the vanished past.

And while they're having fun, they're contributing to the advancement of science.

Are you a good hunter? The two pictures of jellyfish are not identical. Can you locate eight differences in the picture at the right?

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

Inflation has affected funeral costs as it has other professional services.

'Overhead' costs - salaries, maintenance, equipment, heat, light, telephone, car upkeep, insurance, laundry, embalming - are a few of the expenses that make up the funeral service charge.

The funeral director who overcharges for his essential service is rare indeed.

Respectfully,

Levin Hirsch

Symphony To Give Concert Saturday

The Southwest Symphony Orchestra, Alfred Aulwurm conductor, will present its second concert of the season at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 1, in the auditorium of the Evergreen Park High School, 99th and Kedzie.

Cellist Roger Malitz will appear as guest artist playing Concerto in A Minor by Saint-Saens.

Also on the program are overture to "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck; "Serenade for Strings", by Mozart; "Three Dances" from "The Bartered Bride"; "Tales from the Vienna Woods," by Strauss; and Selections from "The Sound of Music" by Richard Rogers.

Playing in the orchestra this year is Sue Kopack, an oboe player, of 14922 Hopkins Ct.; and John Renken, 15032 Highland Ave., who plays the clarinet. Both are from Orland Park.

Openings still exist in the string sections of the orchestra for qualified adults and advanced students. From time to time there are openings in other sections of the orchestra. Rehearsals are held in the Northwest building of Richards High School, 115th and Ridgeland, Alsip, at 7:30 on Monday evenings.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students and are available at the box office.

"WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?"

WOW ... they told us we were crazy holding a Grand Opening Sale in the middle of winter, but response to this sale has been tremendous. For the first eighteen days of this sale hundreds of Will County car buyers have visited our showroom. Many of them bought one of the advertised cars shown in this ad and all of them registered for the prizes we are giving away. We have already surpassed Jan. 1968 sales and the month is only a little better than half over. We have the prizes ... we have the cars ... we have the deals. The next move is up to you. Stop in now and buy a car for hundreds of dollars less than you will this Spring. And we're just not whistling "Dixie" either.

Ever see a $200 bill?

Just one would buy you a whole year of electric heat.

And you'd probably have money left over. Surprised? You shouldn't be . . . because electric heat just doesn't cost a small fortune anymore.

Here's why: Commonwealth Edison has cut the cost of electric heat dramatically in the last ten years. That's why today, you should expect to pay less than $200 a year for electric heat in an average six-room home with proper insulation.

So if you still believe the myth that you have to make a lot of money to afford electric heat, forget it.

It's as phony as a $200 bill!
